Motto: Rise Up, Wake Up and Make a Change

Dated Williamnagar, the 10th June, 2024

Event: Farewell Function 2024

Date: 10th June, 2024

Venue: Williamnagar Government College

Objective: The objective of the Farewell Function was to bid a memorable farewell to the outgoing BA 6th Semester students from the Department of Political Science, celebrating their academic journey and achievements, and to foster a sense of unity and pride among students and faculty.

Report on the Farewell Function, 2024

The farewell function for the outgoing B.A 6th Semester Students from the Department of Political Science, Williamnagar Government College, was held on 10th June 2024. The event was a heartfelt celebration marked by performances, speeches, and memorable moments shared among students and faculty members.

The event was eloquently hosted by Miss Dimre N. Marak and Mr. Etteash D. Shira from the 4th Semester, who welcomed everyone with a warm introduction. Their engaging presence set a positive tone for the day. The first highlight of the day was a vibrant dance performance by Miss Veronica and her team from the 2nd Semester. Their performance was a blend of creativity, energy, and precise choreography that captivated the audience from start to finish. Following the dance, gifts were distributed to the outgoing 6th Semester Students. This gesture symbolized the department's appreciation and best wishes for the students' future endeavors.

Smt. Eubina Sungoh, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, delivered an inspiring speech. She reminisced about the journey of the outgoing batch, highlighting their achievements and contributions to the department. Her words were filled with encouragement and advice for their future paths. An outgoing student Miss Tama Dodambe T. Sangma took to the stage to express gratitude on behalf of the 6th Semester students. The speech was emotional, reflecting on the experiences and bonds formed over the years at Williamnagar Government College. The student thanked all the teachers for their guidance and support. The outgoing students then showcased their talents with a special dance performance. Their act was both entertaining and joyful and added celebratory tone to the farewell function. Mr. Jestfield B. Sangma from the 4th Semester sang a beautiful farewell song, adding a poignant touch to the day. His melodious voice and the touching lyrics resonated with everyone, making it a memorable moment.

The day continued with a cake cutting ceremony. The cake, symbolizing the sweet memories and achievements of the students, was cut amid cheers and applause. Mr. Enrico R. Marak from the 4th Semester delivered the vote of thanks. He expressed gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of the event, including the faculty and students. His closing remarks acknowledged the efforts of the organizing committee and the participants.

The function was well-attended by the teaching faculty members. Shri Robert Basumatary, Head of the Department of Political Science, Smt. Greashina R. Marak, Assistant Professor, Smt. Eubina Sungoh, Assistant Professor, and Dr. Antarwell Warjri, Assistant Professor. Students from the outgoing 6th Semester, as well as those from the 4th and 2nd Semesters, were present, contributing to a large and enthusiastic audience. After the formal program, refreshments were served. The event concluded with a photo session, capturing the joy and camaraderie of the day. These photographs will serve as cherished memories for the students and faculty alike.

Overall, the Farewell Function was a memorable and successful event, leaving lasting impression on everyone involved. It not only celebrated the students' academic journey but also reinforced the sense of community within the Department of Political Science.
