REPORT ON STUDENT MONITORING
ODD SEMESTER 2023-24

In a mentor-mentee class, and orientation programme conducted by the faculties of the department after the admission each student explained about the common issues that they were facing. The problems that the mentees personally or collective shared were resolved as follows:

1. Financial Problems: In relation to this issue, mentees were advised to apply for post matric scholarship which is available for ST and SC students.
2. Examination System: Students were explained about the examination system of the NEHU and distribution of Marks for the Internal Assessment Test (IA) as well as external examination which is conducted by the concerned department and the NEHU respectively.
3. Lack of Ideas about the syllabus: This issue was resolved by organizing Orientation Programme on syllabus and other related matters for the newly admitted students
4. Issue of Text Books: This issue has been resolved as HoD, has taken up the issue with the Principal and provided the list of Text and reference books for procurement. The order has been placed and the books will be supplied very soon.
5. Problems of Transportation: Due to lack of transportation problems classes cannot be attended regularly. This problem will be solved very soon as construction of boys and girls hostel will be completed very soon and made available for the students for stay.
